Still Here

October Drift

If we fall into the gutter
In a stream of melted butter
If we slip slip slip slip into the slipstream
Into some kind of lucid dream

We're lucid dreamers
We're lucid dreamers
We're all just dreaming
We're lucid dreamers
Dream yourself away

I was still asleep
because I hadn't slept for weeks
And my heart didn't beat any faster
Before I could wake up
I had to get myself unstuck
Settle down, Buckle up, worry after

A shock wave, an animal
Tell me no, it isn't so
I'm staring at a two way mirror
The headlights are getting nearer

A write off , a (???)
Tell me no, it isn't so
I'm going to the (???)
I'm gonna see the (???)

I was right on time because I had to do it right
I would never leave the line for a minute

I just walked straight through
I knew exactly what to do
Wouldn't wait until the queue
Had diminished

A shock wave, an animal
Tell me no, it isn't so
I'm staring at a two way mirror

The headlights are getting nearer

A write off , a (???)
Tell me no, it isn't so
I'm going to the (???)
I'm gonna see the (???)

If we fall into the gutter
In a stream of melted butter
If we slip slip slip slip into the slip stream
In some kind of lucid dream

We're lucid dreamers
We're lucid dreamers
We're all just dreaming
We're lucid dreamers
