Limp Bizkit

Step right up
Step right up, everyone
Whether your good or bad
Happy or sad Whether your an emotional wreck
Or a glisful speck in this
Black hole of an existence
We call life Step right up and witness something
You'll be soon to never forget
Feast your ears on the most ferociously
Soothing ways of sonic communication
To ever be created Built for you by the master
Built for you by the ma hey shut up already, what is it!
What is it? uh, yeah dog, what is it
What is it? dude chill man
It is limp bizkit All around the world you know me
All around the world we know you All around the world you know me
All around the world we know you!
