

Can't Hold On

Shiloh

Im your piece of mind
fight for what you've made yourself believe tell me what you find will you cross the line to sabotage me? I'm wide awake I'm wide awake if you could save me now, would I want you to?
What will it take this time
to break away, forget your face
and everything you said?
I can't hold on to you anymore.. I'm your ignorance paid the price to dance
and fell to my knees
love is dangerous
and when it comes to this nothings for free you're wide awake Wait in for me to sleep
If you could save me now,
would I want you to?
What will it take this time,
to break away, forget your face
And everything you said?
I can't hold on to you anymore..
Anymore How could you make me the promises?
I was convinced!
Cuz I never thought that you'd treat me like this! I'm your piece of mind, fight for what you've made yourself believe if you could save me now,
would I want you to?
What will it take this time?
To break away, forget your face
and everything you said
I can't hold on to you anymore..
