

Goth Girls

Broomstick Witches

possessed by goth girls
possessed by goth girls
they're here and there
and everywhere
possessed by goth girls
they're walking in the moonlight through the misty graveyards they're dancing with vampyres around giant bonfires
and nowhere
and when I reach out to kiss their lips they disappear like morning mist chased by the rising sun
