

Knock It

Fishbone

You all feel large, down there
You all feel large but you're looking small down there
You all feel large but you're looking small down there
It's hot so take your clothes off
And get in your drawers
Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock it
Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock it
Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock it
Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock it
Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock it
Put your hammer to the walls, baby
For all you fellas that's knockin' your dong
Don't let the girls go knockin' ya wrong
For all you fellas that's slappin' your prong
Don't let the girls go slappin' ya wrong
Because it's hot so take your clothes off
And get in your drawers
Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock it
Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock it
Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock it
Hammer to the walls, hammer to the walls
Hammer to the walls, let's knock it
For all you fellas just stretching it long
Don't let the girls go knockin' ya wrong
For all you fellas just kinging your kong
Don't let the girls go knockin' ya wrong
Because it's hot
Put your hammer to the walls, baby
And knock your gong
It's a little of that old doodleleedo
A little of that old doodleleedo
A little of that old doodleleedo
Skaditditdititskidaleeedotndeedit
A little of that old doodleleedo
A little of that old doodleleedo
A little of that old doodleleedo
Skaditditdititskidaleeedotndeedit
A little of that old doodleleedo
A little of that old doodleleedo

A little of that old doodleleedoo
Skaditditditditskidaleedotndeedit
