

The One Who Loves You Now

The Proclaimers

Everything I ever had
I let it slip away
Every dream I ever dreamed
Was crossed until today
For I have seen tomorrow
Where my future lies
I see it every time
When I look into
Your beautiful eyes Oh, Im holding on now
Im holding on now Love, dont let me go
Love, please let me know
Have you been waiting
Just the way that Ive been waiting Love, dont let me go
Love, please let me show
How much I want to
Be the one who loves you now Maybe I was too afraid
To show my broken heart
Fading in the shadows
And my world just came apart Looking at you now
I feel what I never felt before
But Im finally ready
To risk it all once more Love, dont let me go
Love, please let me know
Have you been waiting
Just the way that Ive been waiting Love, dont let me go
Love, please let me show
How much I want to
Be the one who loves you now You can believe in taking chances
Oh
Baby, take this one with me
Cant you see what I see
Im holding on Oh, love, dont let me go
Love, please let me know
Have you been waiting
Just the way that Ive been waiting Love, dont let me go
Love, please let me show
How much I want to
Be the one who loves you now Please let me show
How much I want to

Be the one who loves you nowMmmhBe the one who loves you now.
