King of Souls

White Zombie

Priests are gathered around the graves
And no one's soul was saved,
They were fooling with the young man's pain
The childs' mind had gone insaneBorn in heaven, raised in hell
An angel of death that never fell,
Trapped in a world I never made -
I watch the sky turn black and fade.The scene of the crime was empty,
Nothing was left for you to see,
But you could hear the sound
Of the bodies breaking the groundPlague of zombies run away,
Remember hell came today,
Scream, scream and scream again
My days of terror shall begin.In the hills they beat a song
How all were lost and how all was gone
But you can see the figures in the night
Shadows dancing in flaming light.Priests are gathered around the graves
And no one's soul was saved,
They were fooling with the young man's pain
The childs' mind had gone insaneBorn in heaven, raised in hell
An angel of death that never fell,
Trapped in a world I never made -
I watch the sky turn black - black and faaaaade. Fade.
