

Hello Joe

Blondie

I saw you taping thunder from your balcony
 Saving the sounds
 Don't trust your memory
I see you catch the lightning
 Hold it up so you can see
 Through the open windows
 Looking down at me
 Let's wake the roosters
 Nighttime's gonna go
We'll walk and talk years of
Before the light begins to show
 Let's wake the roosters
 Nice to know you Joe
 Let's wake the roosters
 Hola Joe
 Catch the sunrise in a glass
If you turn your back you'll miss it
 Coming up real fast
 Set your trap for nighttime
 You lie down in the dark
 Listen to the thunder
 Listen to my heart
 Let's wake the roosters
 Nighttime's gonna go
We'll walk and talk yeaaars of
Before the light begins to show
 Let's wake the roosters
 Nice to know you Joe
 Let's wake the roosters
 Hey-ho ola Joe
 Caught you in the rain
 It took you by surprise
I'll take you home and dance with you
 Until your clothes are dry
 Place your finger on my pulse
 I'll keep the sign of you
 Keep it nice and close
And when I feel the Breath of spring
 On my face

I know the silent sound of you
Won't be erased
Let's wake the roosters
Nighttime's gonna go
We'll walk and talk years of
Before the light begins to show
Nice to know you Joe
Hey-ho ola Joe
