Joyriding

frnkiero and the cellabration

I'm not sure what they said
But if it's true I'll bet
It's just one more thing I'll regret
I hate my weaknesses, they made me who I am"Yeah, it's cool I'll be ok"
As I felt your pain wash over me
I dry your eyes and hide my shakes
Cause I hate the look that's on your faceThese things inside my head
They never make much sense
So I wouldn't hold my breath
I hope I die before they save my soul"Yeah, it's cool I'll be ok"
As I felt your pain wash over me
I dry your eyes and hide my shakes
Cause I hate the look that's on your faceDon't hang up because I don't have anyone left here
Don't give up, don't hang on to anything I've saidI hate my weaknesses, they made me who I am
It makes no difference, I'm insignificantThis is not the end for us
