

Breakin' Up Is Breakin My Heart

Roy Orbison

I wonder why you threw your diary away
When you walk by I nearly died, what can I say?
Things were fine, you were mine just yesterday
Now we're apart Breakin' up is breakin' my heart I find myself alone at night and then I cry
No tenderness, my happiness just said goodbye
Now you're gone, I'm alone
I wonder why we had to part Breakin' up is breakin' my heart, baby
Breakin' up is breakin' my heart The love affair we used to share is cold and still
I loved you then, I love you now, I always will
The day that you found someone new my lonely world just fell apart
Out of your arms drives me out of my mind Baby, breaking up is breakin' my heart
Baby, breaking up is breakin' my heart Breakin' up is breakin' my heart
Breakin' up is breakin' my heart
