

Dying To Reach You

Point Of Grace

He looked through temples of time
To see you right where you stand, yeah
He emptied all of Himself
So He could reach out His hand To give hope and meaning
To the wasted away
And you are one of the ones
That He was dying to save, oh, yeah He was dying to reach you
Trying to meet you when you need Him most
You've been living in search of the whole truth and real love
Your whole life through, you can open your heart
'Cause He's dying to reach you He's standing there at the door
You can hear Him call you by name
He simply waits to forgive
All of the guilt and the shame He gave up His own life
And He still bears the scars
He only wants to receive you
So come as you are He was dying to reach you
Trying to meet you when you need Him most
You've been living in search of the whole truth and real love
Your whole life through, you can open your heart
'Cause He's dying to reach you Oh, He has waited time and time before
You must be still and know that He is the Lord He was dying to reach you, ooh, yeah
Trying to meet you when you need Him most
Searching for real love, true love
Won't you open your heart?
He's dying to reach you Dying to reach you, girl
Trying to meet you when you need Him most
You've been living in search of the whole truth and real love
Your whole life through, you can open your heart
'Cause He's dying to reach you Dying to reach you
Dying to reach you
Dying to reach you
