Baby Girl, I'm A Blur

Say Anything

Baby girl, I'm a blur
I spoiled, stunted, sickened her
God and death are none of my concern
I'm no philosopher
Deep in your heart, stitched the key
And only one can set me free
From the beast where I dwell
And let the saints all burn in hell
So take what you want from me
Hey, yeah
And take all I've got from me
Hey, yeah
You're with me all the time
The drugs can have my mind, love
You own the rest you'll find
And you're with me all the time
On the roof, burning black
The city smoked from the attack
But on the roof, we love the beast to death
The sweat and whiskey breath
So take what you want from me
Hey, yeah
And take all I've got from me
Hey, yeah
You're with me all the time
The drugs can have my mind, love
You own the rest you'll find
And you're with me all the time
We fall right down, we get back up again
That?s how we be, you and me
I would not crowd, I would not smother you
I'd let you breathe over me
Hey, hey, hey, hey
We're on a sinking ship, we're escaping it
We're on a sinking ship, we're escaping it
We're on a sinking ship, we're escaping it
We're on a sinking ship, we're escaping it
You're with me all the time
You're with me all the time

With me all the time
You're with me all the time
No matter where I go, you?re on my mind
I'll always stumble home and pray I'll find
So with your flamethrower eyes and jilted smile
So you can soothe my wounds and drain my bile
No matter where I go, you?re on my mind
I'll always stumble home and pray I'll find
So with your flamethrower eyes and jilted smile
So you can soothe my wounds and drain my bile
