

Alibi

Bradley Cooper

Don't ask me 'bout tomorrow
Or tell me about my past
My heart is yours to borrow
Ain't nothing meant to last I ain't lyin'
I don't lie
Without an alibi Don't ask too many questions
You don't want answers too
You don't like my direction
Hey, I won't follow you I ain't lyin'
I don't lie
Without an alibi
I told my dyin', daddy
That I have to run away
Look him in the eyes and said
There ain't no other way
So woman, if I tell you that I love you, be okay 'Cause I ain't lyin'
I don't lie
Without an alibi I love you in the morning
And when the day is done
But if you want my freedom
You know I'm bound to run I ain't lyin'
I don't lie
Without an alibi
I told my dyin', daddy
That I have to run away
Look him in the eyes and said
There ain't no other way
So woman, if I tell you that I love you, be okay 'Cause I ain't lyin'
I don't lie
Without an alibi
