One Good Reason

Celldweller

How could I be so dumb
I wanted to believe someone
How could I be so dumb
I wanted to believe someone
I shouldn't have
Made the mistake of opening my mouth
I thought you'd understand but I guess
That thinking doesn't count
Act all concerned--well, sucks for me man
Can't wait to see where you will be
When it finally hits the fan
You tell me I shouldn't want to die
But can't give me one good reason
Why!
Oh give it up and get out of my way
Don't bother patronizing me just 'cause
You've got nothing to say I've taken
What you've told me-I was ready to Apply "liars can't be trusted" man, but
You're the one who lied
You tell me I shouldn't want to die
But can't give me one good reason
Why!
One time my spine controlled by your

Small mind so many reasons for what
You've justified (don't kill yourself)
How could I be so dumb
I wanted to believe someone
How could I be so dumb
I wanted to believe someone
You tell me I shouldn't want to die
But can't give me one good reason
Why!
You tell me I shouldn't want to die
But can't give (You cant give me)
You can
