

A Little Bit

Jack Ingram

So you believed them
When they whispered like the wind
Now we are back where we beganAnd how do you know
I was okay, leavin' anyway
And I miss you everydayI'm a little bit angry and that's alright
It's a little bit harder every time
I'm a little bit lucky and that's alright
'Cause I'm a little bit strongerI saw it comin'
We were racing to the end
Now there's no goin' back
Where we beganAnd I loved you so much
So afraid of believing
In your touch but this timeI'm a little bit angry and that's alright
It's a little bit harder every time
I'm a little bit lucky and that's alright
'Cause I'm a little bit strongerYeah, I'm a little bit angry and that's alright
It's a little bit harder every time
I'm a little bit lucky, that's alright
'Cause I'm a little bit strongerJust a little bit angry
Little bit harder
A little bit lucky
Little bit strongerI'm a little bit angry, that's alright
It's a little bit harder every time
I'm a little bit lucky and I don't mind
'Cause I'm a little bit strongerYeah, I'm a little bit angry and that's alright
It's a little bit harder every time
I'm a little bit lucky and I don't mind
'Cause I'm a little bit, just a little bitYeah, I'm a little bit angry and that's alright
It's a little bit harder every time
I'm a little bit lucky and I don't mind
'Cause I'm a little bit strongerBe alright, gonna be alright
Just a little bit, gonna be alright
Just a little bit stronger
[Incomprehensible]
Just a little bit [Incomprehensible]
