He Has His Hands On You

Marvin Sapp

oooListen:
(He sees) He sees the tears you cry
(And He shares) He shares your pain inside
(And sometimes) And sometimes you wonder why He allows you to go through what you go through (Listen) Just know He has His hands on you.
(See your days) Your days are filled with dark clouds
(Even when the sun is out)Even when the sun is out
(And from the top of your lungs)And from the top of your lungs you shout will there ever be a change, what shall I do
Just know He has His hands on you
He has his hands on you
He says He'll see you through
When you cry He's holding you
So just lift your hands up high
For He will provide
Just know He has his hands on you
Sometimes you feel so alone
Like a child lost with no home

They keep telling you to be strong
But you say when will it end?
When will I win?
But just know He has His hands on you.
He has His hands on you
He says He'll see you through
When you cry He's holding you
So just lift your hands up high
For He will provide
Just know he has his hands on you.
When times are hard and it seems no one can understand
But it's in those times that we, we tend to forget what it means to be in His hands.
He has His hands on you
He says He'll see you through
When you cry He's holding you
So just lift your hands up high
For He will provide (Just know) (x2)
Just know He has His hands on you.
