Give Up

Bill Gaither

Give up, give up Give up your love to me Give up, give up Give up your love to me You better listen well When I tell you to be on the look out You can't call for help 'Cause I know you inside out despite all your hideouts I'm no great pretender I'll make you surrender so come along quietly Here's a thought to remember I have not met a man yet to escape from my drag-net Give up, give up Give up your love to me Give up, give up Give up your love to me Give up, give up Give up your love to me Give up, give up Give up your love to me I'll give you just the facts man And you can draw all your own conclusions I'll keep your mind surrounded With chains of love so strong, you can't break through them My arsenal is stocked With all kinds of seductive weapons Although your heart's locked up My love will assist me so that you can't resist me

Give up, give up
Give up your love to me
Give up, give up
Give up your love to me
Give up, give up
Give up your love to me
Give up, give up
Give up your love to me
Give up, give up
Give up your love to me

Give up, give up
Give up your love to me
No, no, no, no, no
Give up, give up
Give up your love to me
Give up, give up
Give up your love to me
Give up, give up
Give up your love to me
Give up, give up
Give up your love to me
Give up, give up
Give up your love to me
Give up, give up
Give up your love to me
Give up, give up
