Letters to the Other Side

William Control

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

My life came apart like a love letter in the rain
The ink went cold the blood ran strange
I chased the dream and still I woke up dying alone
Im out of morphine
Jude where have you gone?Ran through the streets of the Rue De Rivoli
Right downtown to hell
Here comes the panic here comes the terror
Save me now before I come undone
And lose my flesh and blood
Ive written a thousand lines for youI posses you
I entice you
I surround you
I will destroy youI can live on the other side. Well sacrifice and serve
Tell me tell me tell me what if I killed for you, I am the damned
Somebody loves you. Somebody died for you.
I sing for the damned
