

You Catch a Bad One

Beastie Boys

Shit happens with the games you run
Never thought the day would come
It ain't tomorrow till the day is done
A son, you caught a bad one Yeah son, changes we go through
Catch a bad one, think the world owes you
Yeah son, what do you owe me?
Catch a bad one, c'mon son show me Yeah son, till the day is done
Catch a bad one, time to pay attention
Yeah son, all that's stress can equal none
A son, you caught a bad one Shit happens with the games you run
Even if it's a battle you won
The new day starts when today is done
A son, you caught a bad one Yeah son, what in the fuck the world owes you?
Catch a bad one, when nothing goes through
Yeah son, all about the cream
Catch a bad one, things are not as they seem Yeah son, here your moms comes
A son, you caught a bad one
