

Never Gonna Learn

Ded Rabbit

Verse 1:

I feel like I'm moving backwards
I'm sick of the constant running out of steam
Don't think that you've mastered everything
Same ringtone that I once answered
Embrace the invader on the other line
My heart beats slightly out of time You always seem to suffer
(Hey Hey Hey)

Regret the lies you tell your brother
(Hey Hey Hey) Verse 2:

I feel like my own spectator
I take on an overwhelming point of view
Oh darling, of course I care about you Chorus:
So don't look straight in
You're never gonna learn
That eyes and scars will burn
And it's so frustrating
You never wait your turn
Don't let the candle burn You always seem to suffer
(Hey Hey Hey)

Regret the lies you tell your mother
(Hey Hey Hey)

Stick around to help me out
Or watch me fall from grace Verse 3:
I'm saving my questions for you
I'm still holding out for a different kind of blue
Oh darling, of course I care for you
I tear down my selfish shelter
I'm opening up and I'm letting in the world
Oh darling, of course I love you love you, love you Chorus (x2):

So don't look straight in
You're never gonna learn
That eyes and scars will burn
Oh It's so frustrating
You never wait your turn
Don't let the candle burn
