

Money Can't Save Your Soul

Savoy Brown

Well, you've got a new man
And that's good for you
And you've got a lot of money
But what good will that do When he leaves you on the side
And the money falls away
You'll come running back, baby
Believe what I say Money can't save your soul
You better leave now while it's still ain't old
Money can't ease your mind
Come back and leave it all behind You're in his house
And it sure looks fine
With three other girls
But you're the first in line And what would happen
When your time comes 'round?
The money will go
And you'll be homeward bound Money can't save your soul
You better leave now while it's still ain't old
Money can't ease your mind
Come back and leave it all behind Well, you've got a new man
And that's good for you
And you've got a lot of money
But what good will that do When he leaves you on the side
And the money falls away
You'll come running back, baby
Believe what I say Money can't save your soul
You better leave now while it's still ain't old
Money can't ease your mind
Come back and leave it all behind, oh yeah
