

Wasted

SOiL

I'm done chasing sorrow, I'm facing my fear
Been searching for tomorrow to find out who I am
My eyes are getting clearer, my heart is beating fast
I see into my future, what I found is way too sad
And it all turned into nothingThe years have fallen, where have I been?
I'm caught up in the moment and these are my wasted years
Years have fallen, where have I been?
I'm caught up in the moment and these are my wasted years
WastedI'm through feeling guilty, I'm done with my past
I looked into the sunlight, I knew it couldn't last
My heart is beating fast now, I see through bloodshot eyes
Been dreaming of the future, one that I despise
I could always see this comingThe years have fallen, where have I been?
I'm caught up in the moment and these are my wasted years
Years have fallen, where have I been?
I'm caught up in the moment and these are my wasted yearsThe years have fallen, where have I been?
I'm caught up in the moment, these are my wasted years
Years have fallen, where have I been?
I'm caught up in the moment, these are my wasted yearsWasted, wasted, wasted
