

No Reason to Complain

The Alarm Clocks

Walkin' down the street
I guess I
I got no reasons, no good ones why
To see my baby standin' there
She doesn't know, doesn't even care

I got no reasons to complain, yeah
I got no reasons to complain, yeah

To see her walkin' on past me by
She gets no worries, she don't cry
She's got another, bigger man
She doesn't know, doesn't understand

I've got no reasons to complain, yeah
I've got no reasons to complain, yeah

To see her walkin' on down the line
She gets no worries, she don't whine
She's got another, bigger man

I've got no reasons to complain, ohh
