

Sweet Young Thing Ain't Sweet No More

Mudhoney

Sweet young thing ain't sweet no more
Sweet young thing ain't sweet no more
Mama found her draped over the toilet bowlOoohMama said, "child, what you done? "
Mama said, "child, what you done? "
"wake up and greet the midday sun"Sweet young thing ain't sweet no more
Sweet young thing ain't sweet no more
Mama's little pills spilled all over the floorOooh
Oooh, ow, ow, owMama can't handle her on her own
Mama can't handle her on her own
She says, "you just wait till your father gets home"
