So Right

Bell, Book & Candle

Can you help me?Call me lover, watch me, I got something for you
Call me lover, more of you never knew
Call me lover, listen, what I've got to say to you
Call me lover, hear now and be all mineCall me lover, turn around and see, what you get
Call me lover, find out what's on my mind
Call me lover, say the words I won't forget
Call me lover, don't be so shy
'Cause I'm feelin' easy I let myself go
And if you can see me smileI'll treat you right, so right, I give you everything you like
I'll treat you right, so right, I give you everything you like
I'll treat you right, so right, bring you joy and morning light
I'll treat you right, so right, I give you everything you like
I'll treat you rightCall me lover, now you found out what it's about
Call me lover another step further
Call me lover
Call me lover
We're feelin' easy, we let ourselves go
And you've been caught by my smileI'll treat you right, so right, I give you everything you like
I'll treat you right, so right, I give you everything you like
I'll treat you right, so right, bring you joy and morning light
I'll treat you right, so right, I give you everything you likeI'll treat you right, so right, I give you everything you like
I'll treat you right, so right, I give you everything you like
I'll treat you right, so right, bring you joy and morning light
I'll treat you right, so right, I give you everything you likeI'll treat you right, so right, I give you everything you like
I'll treat you right, so right, I give you everything you like
I'll treat you right, so right, bring you joy and morning light
I'll treat you right, so right, I give you everything you like
I'll treat you right
