Unforgivable

Hawthorne Heights

All I need is to hear your voice and You're juliet and I'm just your posion
Slowly sinking in
I'm just your means to an end
All I want is to be the one to scratch
These words down on the pavement
Let the whole world know
It was time for us to go
Where am I going and where have i been?
The beginning of the end
This is the summer when I get my life together
If I, I come home empty handed
I know you'll understand that I
I know I'm always working, Cross my heart
I'm always searching
I try not to leave you there
I am so unforgivable
All I need is, I have to hear you
Real me in and you disapear
You left me on my own
This is how it feels to be alone
All I have are words and paper
I wrote her down and then erased her

Afraid to show myself
I'm not sure of how I felt
Where am I going and where have i been?
The beginning of the end
This is the summer when I get my life together
If I, I come home empty handed
I know you'll understand that I
I know I'm always working, Cross my heart
I'm always searching
I try not to leave you there
I am so unforgivable
All we are, are
Ticking clocks
Keeping track
Of time thats lost

(I am so unforgivable)
This is the summer when I get my life together
If I, I come home empty handed
I know you'll understand that I
I know I'm always working, Cross my heart
I'm always searching
I try not to leave you there
I am so unforgivable

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/