Angel

Jon Secada

I, I cant read the future but I still want to hold you close
Right now, I need that from you
So give me the morning sharing another day with you
Is all I want to knowAnd baby I, Ive tried to forget you
But the light of your eyes
Still shines, you'll shine like an angel
A spirit that wont let me goI, I didnt want to tell you things I didnt wanna know myself
Was afraid to show
But you, you gave me a reason, a reason to face the truth
Oh yes you did
To face the truth, face the truth, face the truthAnd baby I, Ive tried to forget you
But the light of your eyes
Still shines, shines, shines like an angel
A spirit that wont let me go
Wont let me go
Let go of my heartAnd baby I, Ive tried to forget you
But the light of your eyes
Still shines like an angel
A spirit that wont let me go
No, wont let me go
