

Sunshine

John Reuben

It's one of these moments in life when you feel incapable.
I try to hide but the villains inside are sort of unescapable.
And everything that I become suddenly feels replaceable.
Now I'm left to my inadequacy huh you get the point.

All my goals seem out of reach and unattainable.
Your thoughts get lost in the shuffle and become unexplainable.
No words to match the emotion that I'm roller coasting on.
Just words of devotion hope that someday soon they'll be gone like that.

I know lessons are learned through perseverance,
And I know I grow when I can adhere to this.
Just hard sometimes to keep yourself in a good perspective,
But God controls the hands of time and when the time is right I'll be perfected.

Even when what lies ahead seems so unbearable,
Gods grace is still so remarkable.
Yeah I can face any day
With a faith that exceeds time and space.
Give me the strength to change the pace.

Cause I've been burning on energy
that was meant to be directed differently.
No wonder we find ourselves empty.
Worn out and burned out with how things have turned out.
We've learned how to cope but this whole thing is broke down and not working.

Typical earthling, searching for a system, a coping mechanism listen hey we're not meant to carry the load or bear these burdens on our own
I'm tired of living in survival mode gonna give it up and let it go.

I know lessons are learned through perseverance,
And I know I grow when I can adhere to this.
Just hard sometimes to keep yourself in a good perspective,
But God controls the hands of time.

Give me some Sunshine
Give me some Sunshine

Give me some Sunshine
Clear my mind.
And in the meantime
I know that I'm I'm gonna
I'm gonna, I'm gonna
Be just fine.
