Mary Magdalene

Whitton

Mary Magdalene
by Patty Larkin
My name is Mary
Mary Magdalene
I let the devil carry me
To the dark side of a sin

I heard his laughter
And I tried to run
Now there is no ever after
After everything I've done

I'm all broke up
I'm all broke down
Got turned around somehow
Who is my savior now

I took off running
Just to feel the wind
I shook off my innocence
Now I want it back again

I heard the siren
Coming from the past
Ninety miles from nowhere
I was going nowhere fast

I'm all broke up
I'm all broke down
Got turned around somehow
Who is my savior now

My name is Mary
Mary Magdalene
I let the devil carry me
To the dark side of a sin

I told the silence
I wanted to go back
But standing in the midnight shade

A shadow fades to black

I'm all broke up
I'm all broke down
Got turned around somehow
Who is my savior now
