

Listen

Endo

Sell, sell, everything's for sale
Hey there, kid, you're looking kinda pale
Victim of society's hell
Sell your soul for the dollar bill Reach up the sky, make me high
Walk on water, rise and shine
Listen, won't you listen?
I wanna taste you deep inside I'm so tired of being sick
I need a drink, I need a fix
I can't complain, just close the door
'Cuz I'll never be your little whore One day, you'll get yours
Someday, you'll get yours
One day, you'll get yours
Someday, you'll get yours Listen, won't you listen?
Listen, won't you listen?
Listen, won't you listen?
Listen, won't you listen? One day, you'll get yours
Someday, you'll get yours
