

Have You Ever?

Shawn McDonald

Have you ever wanted to be someone else?
And have you ever wanted just to be someone?
And have you ever wanted to reach your dreams?
And have you ever wanted life to be more than it seems? And I have tasted of a love so wide that it stops all my time
And I have tasted of a love so deep that it blows my mind And have you ever wanted to reach up and touch the sky
And have you ever wanted to pack it up and say good-bye
And have you ever wanted someone to care
And have you ever wanted someone to be there And I have tasted of a love so wide that it stops all my time
And I have tasted of a love so deep that it blows my mind
