

Goodbye

Alien Ant Farm

All that you do is steps above
Anything else we could dream of
My tabloid girl you're miracle
Gods gave to us but cynical
What're these battles around you
Walking on next just behind you
Spit on your face I love to
If only I didn't love you
And many of your friends would say
That you look today
Goodbye
Goodbye
The man to your dismay
You'll turn your head one day
Goodbye
GoodbyeHumbleness of me to share the love
But you never caught that drifting jar
My little girl, you'll see the world
A dismal place where you're the thrill
And things you certain did in grace
Larger than life to our human race
If I could just pull back your ??? make them tie
My sweet there's nothing larger than life
I hear my conscience say that you look good today
Goodbye
Goodbye
The man to disbelief
You'll turn your pretty cheeksYou never caught that drifting jar
You never caught that drifting jar
And many of your friends would say
That you look today
And in your special way
You know before they told you
The man you're going to lay
You'll turn your head one day
Goodbye (goodbye)
Goodbye (goodbye)
Goodbye (goodbye)
Goodbye (goodbye)

Goodbye (goodbye)
