

About a Quarter to Nine

Bobby Darin

The stars are gonna twinkle and shine
this evening 'bout a quarter to nine.
My loving arms are gonna tenderly twine this evening around you a quarter to nine.

I know, I won't be late,
'cause at half past eight
I'll be waiting there.
I'll be waiting where lane begins waiting for you on needles and pins, and then the world is gonna be mine
this evening 'bout a quarter to nine.

All the stars are gonna twinkle and shine this very evening 'bout a quarter to nine.
These loving arms, they're gonna tenderly twine around you 'bout a quarter to nine.

I know, I won't be late,
'cause at half past eight
I will hurry there.
I'm gonna be waiting where the lane begins.
Waiting on you on needles and pins,
and then this world is gonna be mine
this evening 'bout a quarter to nine.
