Mercy Killing

Love Like Blood

written on the moon I see your reply written on the sky, reflected in your eyes behave yourself - this is my cry the will to live - the reason why you call it absolutely necessary mercy killingall the nights there made you crazy all the time you wanted to flee there was always danger in your dreams and all that thoughts you fight to hide about the motionless body at your side with the hate that's growing in you what an easy killing for youdon't do it, you ask me why behave yourself, the evil in your eye behave yourself, your greeds'll come alive the will to live, the reason whyyour emotions got to be colder the person beside you got to be older your emotions got to be colder your gread got to be bolder and bolder death, I can read it in your eyes death, death now will come alive helpless the body in swoon your mercy act has to come soon but suddenly as you pushed the tubes you heard him cry for mercy
