Five Nights at Freddy's: Night 2

Random Encounters

Something here seem foul
Something here reeks of blood and suffering
Could it be these halls are echoing
Of Death. We'll see
In all my dreams i see
A maze of halls with bloody walls and countless scrawls reminding me
IT'S ME
Don't play these games
You've lost your fright
I'm armed with more than a light and I'm surviving five nights!

No phones, no screens, no more Just you and me a gun or three and nothing else between me and this door
You bring the fur
I'll bring the fight
So foxy come get a bite
Cause i'm surviving five nights!
