

Rustin Man

Beth Gibbons & Rustin Man

Oh Rustin Man
I can't deny this is you again
Little I know
But how the hold is holding you

Let's all decide the shame
Many more were left to stay
Many decided love was a game

How many more days can we take in the hope of seeing you

Oh Rustin Man
I can't deny this is you again
Little little little I know
But how the hold is holding you

Lets all get out of frame
Oh Rustin Man
I can't deny this is you again
