

When Your Spirit Gets Weak

Plus One

We beg to borrow, we beg to steal
We beg forgiveness, we beg to feel
We beg for love, I guess we beg for hate
We beg for everything and pray it's not too late
What everybody's tryna' feel, I guess we're tryna' heal
Everybody's got to kneel, no way to reinvent the wheel
Everybody's got to stand up on their feet
Everybody needs a dream, when the spirit gets too weak
So when your spirit gets too weak
When the water seems too deep
When you think there's just no way
I'll be there for you night and day
When the mountain seems too steep
When your spirit gets too weak
When you think there's just no way
I'll be there for you night and day
We beg for happiness, we beg for tears
We beg for courage just to overcome our fears
We beg to rise above and hope we never fall
We beg for everything and pray He hears our call
What everybody's tryna' feel, I guess we're tryna' heal
Everybody's got to kneel, no way to reinvent the wheel
Everybody's got to stand up on their feet
Gotta be there for your brother, when the spirit gets too weak
So when your spirit gets too weak
When the water seems too deep
When you think there's just no way
I'll be there for you night and day
When the mountain seems too steep
When your spirit gets too weak
When you think there's just no way
I'll be there for you night and day
Although the road is rough
And sometimes you feel like it ain't enough
We'll be there for each other
We'll find the way
So when your spirit gets too weak
When the water seems too deep
When you think there's just no way
I'll be there for you night and day
When the mountain seems too steep
When your spirit gets too weak
When you think there's just no way
I'll be there for you night and day
When your spirit gets too weak
When the water seems too deep
When you think there's just no way
I'll be there for you night and day
When the mountain seems too steep
When your spirit gets too weak
When you think there's just no way

I'll be there for you night and day When your spirit gets too weak
When the water seems too deep
When you think there's just no way
I'll be there for you night and day When the mountain seems too steep
When your spirit gets too weak
When you think there's just no way
I'll be there for you night and day
