Brenda X

Poco

Well, she don't change horses in midstream
She got but one heart and one dream
She had a feelin' I was runnin' scared
In the face of trouble we took a dare
To be one, to be two
Way below this burnin' sun
I swear there isn't anyone but youDon't have to tell nobody just how we feel
They can take one look and they know it's real
Straight out of heaven through the confusion
Comes an eleven, she brings the truth to me
To be one, to be two
Way below this burnin' sun
I swear there isn't anyone but youI was driftin' in my mind
Thought I was goin' blind
She saved my life in time
Ain't gonna be nobody's foolJust when I thought it would not blow over Straight out of nowhere comes a lover
Bringin' the things I'd never heard of
And all the dreams I could not be sure of
To be one, to be two
Way below this burnin' sun
I swear there isn't anyone but you
