Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Alright, alright
Won't you take a listen?
Take a listen baby Listen, oh right
You might learn something, come on
Won't you take a listen?
Take a listen, baby You might burn something, come on
I want you to listen, listen, listen
You might learn something, come on
Please just listen Hey, hey
What's happening y'all?
Check this out
Listen to me for a minute I know you've been waiting a long time
So I'm much obliged to get your mind
Right on my main man's guitar
How lucky we are to be alive
The day the west returns with funky shit
For all your emotions, that's right While I'm sipping on this love potion
I must say, I did miss my folks, yes
But I had to go down there
And get my money right, understand
All good loving Californian music
Enjoy it while you can Why don't you listen, yeah?
Won't you take a listen?
