Royal Blood

Whiteriver

Letâ€™s take a look at the deep animated shroud
Forgot all these lessons to solve oppression
These cold pale fingers try to snap a tainted crown
Yet royal blood is running through our veins

I canâ€™t find a reason for staying alive anymore
Cause now I realized this bitter worldâ€™s in vain
Now I remember all my wounds which became Scars, symbols and monuments
Walking straight ahead to our endless abyss
Our feet retire on our way at getting old

Here I am waiting for you
To explain me the nature of our kind

Canâ€™t we blame our society?
How will our mankind survive?
The world is not as it seems
Iâ€™d rather change my life
