Pain

Lea Salonga

(alvina eileen sy)The thoughts I have of you I treasure
The good times and the bad
We'll share forever more
Somehow, you've changed
We just didn't make it through
But I believe that one day
You'll have to know
That I'm still in love with youAt times we couldn't understand each other
And though we tried we couldn't keep from fallin'
Somehow, somewhere our love had lost it's way
And now I feel it's over, it's hard to say
But I love you just the sameRefrain:
Oh, it's been so long
Since I had you by my side
I don't even know what to say or do
I tried so hard to get you off my mind
But I love you still try to understand
When I'm all alone...
I still can feel the pain you've left behindThe thoughts I have of you I treasure
The good times and the bad
We'll share forever more
Somehow, you've changed
We just didn't make it through
But I believe that one day
You'll have to know
That I'm still in love with youAt times we couldn't understand each other
And though we tried we couldn't keep from fallin'
Somehow, somewhere our love had lost it's way
And now I feel it's over, it's hard to say
But I love you just the sameOh, it's been so long
Since I had you by my side
I don't even know what to say or do
I tried so hard to get you off my mind
But I love you please try to understand
When I'm all alone...
I still can feel the pain you've left behindThe thoughts I have of you I'll always treasure
The good times and the bad
We'll share forever more
Somehow, somewhere our love will find a way

And I believe that one day
I'll hear you'll say that you love me all the wayAll the way, ohhh
Love me all the way...
Love me, love me all the way
Love me all the way, baby
Pap-pap-pap-para-rap-pap-papLove me, love me all the way...
Love me, hear you say you love meAll the way...
All the way...I believe that one day
I will hear you say
You love me all the way
