

Little Is Known

Ã-lga

Little is known about where you came from
Little is known about what you do
Little is known about what youâ€™re here for
Who are you, really now
Who are you?

Arching brows, sideway sneers, indifference and jeers
Closing doors and windows
Averting eyes sumâ€™rise, so easy to throw aside
Anything and anyone unknown

Little is known about where you came from
Little is known about what you do
Little is known about what youâ€™re here for
Who are you, really now
Who are you?

Are you fake or are you for real
Are you buying hope with play dollar bills?
You could be wrong, you could be right
You could be just tryinâ€™ to be nice
But they donâ€™t care, they donâ€™t care to meet ya

(Chorus)

Canâ€™t make someone open their minds
If they just ainâ€™t ready
Gonna take more time

(chorus)

And theyâ€™re stuck in their ways
Theyâ€™re stuck in their ways
