

One Who Points to Death

Infernal Majesty

Dracul the order of the dragon a secret council authored by the king
Implications of the devil fighting forces of the darkness drain your life from your bloody remains
Called oppressive religious a fanatical extremist exterminating cynics in the same
Of the church and the holy ghost forcing good against evil in a vicious crushed Pain I'm Vlad the Impaler
Pain fear the Impaler prince
Pain I'm Vlad the Impaler
Pain make your last wish
Pain I'm Vlad the Impaler
Pain fear the Impaler prince
Pain I'm Vlad the Impaler
Pain take your last breath Fear starves your mind struggle now to survive visualize impending horror
Dread the vile torture
Pleading to your god numb your crazed psychotic mind ghastly screaming throughout night
Impaled body reaching hell
Deep in your mind lies your worst nightmares controlling the shape of your darkest fears
Staring at the exit to your life feel the grasp of my hands sense the draining of your soul
Stalking your subconscious they rebel they revolt us beckoning
Beckoning join us Violent son of the devil leaving thousands slowly rotting in their graves
King of inhumanity enforcing my morality, the slaughtered legions screaming the insane
Madness, of the gruesome executions mass impaled slowly rotting of the stare
Innocents screaming children bleeding women pleading for their lives Pain I'm Vlad the Impaler
Pain fear the Impaler prince
Pain I'm Vlad the Impaler
Pain make your last wish
Pain I'm Vlad the Impaler
Pain fear the Impaler prince
Pain I'm Vlad the Impaler
Pain take your last breath
Bloodthirsty tyrant torturing for pleasure methodical use of terror
Fuel deranged psychotic mind
Sinister monster in the service of satan
Destroying the almighty god forever
