8 Dead Boys

Babyshambles

Sit right down if you're a friend
You know there ain't too many left of them
You said, ?I want love, I want it all?
You look better now than last time
But you still look better from afar
The life that you wanted was not in store
You're being in the dark once again
Hello, hello
Hello, my love
Hello, my love
Stop your moaning and I'll give you a taster
They give you and line and they call you a waster
Give you a line, oh what a waster
Say you will or you won't
You do or you don't
You do or you don't
You do or you don't
'Cause you look better now than the last time
But you're still no better than before
The life that you wanted wasn't in store
You're being in the dark once again
Hello, hello
Hello, my love
Hello, my love
When it suits you, you're a friend of mine
When it suits you, you're a friend of mine
When it suits you, you're a friend of mine
When it suits you, you're a friend of mine
When it suits you, you're a friend of mine
When it suits you, you're a friend of mine
When it suits you, you're a friend of mine
When it suits you, you're a friend of mine
When it suits you, you're a friend of mine
When it suits you, you're a friend of mine
When it suits you, you're a friend of mine
When it suits you, you're a friend of mine
You're a friend of mine
You're a friend of mine
You're a friend of mine

You're a friend of mine
'Cause you look better now than the last time
Still no better than before
The life that you wanted was not in store
You're being in the dark once again
You look better now than the last time
Still no better than before
The life that you wanted was not in store
You're being in the dark once again
Hello, my love
