Inspiration

John Butler Trio

I'm going way down, down south
Where I feel a little better about myself
Gonna find some inspiration real soon
Mother Earth and I'm gonna find a way
Cause I'm riding through this valley all the way
Yeah, on my own
Gonna learn to say, live by myself
I'm gonna learn to be alone
'Cause I've chained myself to someone's hip
So long, now, I can't see
And I've forgotten who I really was
I forgot about me
Gonna find some inspiration
Gonna take it real slow
No pressure on myself
I'm gonna go with the flow
'Cause it seems like the only person
I can't escape from is me
So I'm gonna open these old eyes
I'm gonna open them up and see
'Cause I'm riding through this valley all the way
Yeah, on my own
Gonna learn to, say, live by myself
I'm gonna learn to be alone
'Cause it seems like the only person I don't know is me
So I'm gonna open these old eyes
I'm gonna open them up and see
Hey, I'm comin" home, hey, I'm comin' home
