Crack of Dawn

Raunchy

Explosions in my thoughts keep going on and on
It's keeping me awake till the crack of dawn
I'm so paranoid
I hope nobody is ever gonna see me like this
I'm twisting and turning my eyes feel like they're burning
I don't know what I'll do please stop before I lose my mindI am falling through the holes of my mind
I know that it will be that way till the crack of dawnWhat is this shit that i just can't do nothing about
Talking is useless help is useless
I'm going out of my mindI lay down to rest my soul
Until the words of glory has been told
My pillow is soft and warm
I'll leave spots in the crack of dawnI am falling through the holes of my mind
I know that it will be that way till the crack of dawnThough it's all so quiet
Nothing can keep my thoughts from being wild
