

Golden Heart

Erasure

Like a bubble that's floating on high above
I won't break down, I won't cry
But the colors all melting
I am fragileI've been acting so coldly
And hope some day
That you will forgive meYou are the one
That knows me for who I really am
It'll all be gone in the morning
We are lucky, owe it all to fortuneGolden heart
Tears of love
Shining, will glowThere's a light at the end there
Of this tunnel
I am crawling slowly
I am smallWhat's been up with me lately?
Hardly know me
Who's that in the mirror?You are the one
That knows my moods of joy and anger
You've been coping and lonely
We are lucky, owe it all to fortuneGolden heart
Tears of love
Shining, will glowGolden heart
Tears of love
Shining, will glowGolden heart
Tears of love
Shining, will glow
