Outer Demons

The Color Morale

We'll all stop singing songs
And start singing out our pain instead
I hope one day to bury the past so deep
My ghost can't find itIs this you being yourself or
Acting on part to please someone else
Take a look at your health
Take a look in someone else's eyes
But don't deface yourselfGo on, try to delete me
Deceive me, you can't
I will destroy you
That demon inside before it destroys everythingAt some point
You'll have to make a few decisions
Boundaries don't keep anybody out
They only fence us in
I've got myself and no one else
Our demons are made from a past
But we leave them a home in hellI've got myself and no one else
And I am just fine with this
I've got myself and no one else
But I'm not okay, who am I kidding?Is this you being yourself or
Acting on part to please someone else
Take a look at your health
Take a look in someone else's eyes
But don't deface yourselfGo on, try to delete me
Deceive me, you can't
I will destroy you
That demon inside before it destroys everythingI will destroy you
Leave now
While you still have the legs to take youGo on, try to delete me
Deceive me, you can't
I will destroy you
That demon inside before it destroys meMaybe I don't need to Find a demon that plays well with mine
Maybe I need to let go
Of the hell I keep raising inside on my own
On my own
