

Guiding Light

Television

Do I, Do I?
Belong to the night?
Only only
Only tonight.
All the ladies

Stay inside.
Time may freeze,
A world could cry.
All this night running loud

I hear the whispers I hear the shouts.
And tho they never cry for help...

Tell me who sends these
Infamous gifts.
To make such a promise
And make such a slip.

Oh no
Can't pull a trick
Never the rose
Without the prick

But tell me how do I say?
I woke up and it was yesterday.
Do I again face this night?

Guiding Light. Guiding Light
Guiding through these nights.

Darling Darling
Do we part like the seas?
The roaring shell...
The drifting of the leaves...

All intent
Remains unknown.
It's time to sit up

Up on the throne.

It's seen before but it's always new.
So look close and see who's come thru.
Never again to face this night

Guiding Light, Guiding Light
Guiding through these nights.
