Honey

Bec Stevens

its over now
and theres a hole in my chest where you lived for awhile

honey
yeah you broke me down
and i tried and i tried still felt somehow

its funny
how things turn out i crashed my car, lost my dog, two friends ended it all but this feels worse somehow and Iâ€™m sorry
for your disease
its been eating you away since before you were sixteen but Iâ€™m scared
cos i canâ€™t find my feet but people walk on my toes since i was a kid just to help them reach but now i canâ€™t reach

so fuck you
youâ€™ve ruined me
and i never asked for anything more than please just open a door but you never let me in now youâ€™re gone
but you wonâ€™t leave
cos your scared
yeah youâ€™re scared
so much more scared than me
to leave
to leave
to leave
